Continuation of 2. NOTE: The newly added limitations in the last 5 lines of claim 13 constitute new issues that would require further consideration and search. Additionally, the proposed amendment is also denied entry because no arguments were presented for claims 16 and 17 which ar significantly broader in scop than claim 1. Thus, the reply fails t present a complete reply under 37 CFR 1.113. See MPEP 714.12 and 714.13.

Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: the broadly recited "a thin resin layer" in claim 1 does not in any way distinguish over the adhesive resin layer as taught by Tanaka et al.
